A committee is being formed to plan our 300th Anniversary in 2027. If you have an interest or perhaps want more information, please contact Barry.

In bringing our church library up to date, it is clear that we have too many copies of several items. So, today the materials being removed from the library will be located on a table in the social hall. Some of the items are listed below. Please help yourself.

Video tapes from the 250th Anniversary - 1977

Voices From the Past - oral history - interviews with 10 older church leaders.

Video tapes from the 275th Anniversary - 2002

Memorial Day - May, 2002

Anniversary Celebration - Aug., 2002 - two tapes

The Surprising Christmas Pageant

From 2004 - Little Tree - a play

Advent Booklets

Also, Minutes for History from the 250th anniversary various church directories, calendars, and books

Chocolate peanut butter and coconut cream eggs are now available through Easter. All profits will be to help Robin Hammond with her medical bills. Call Shirley Miller 717-786-3690 to order or purchase them on Sunday's.

Praise and Prayer Service Sunday March 3rd at 4:30 p.m. at Union Presbyterian Church. Pastor John will deliver the message. Come join us.

We are serving more and more local families as the year progresses. We definitely depend on, and appreciate, the generous support of our community. The donations we receive, in so many different forms, are an amazing testament to the sharing hearts of our neighbors. Thank you. Have a safe and blessed Easter.

Cindy, Volunteer Coordinator, Solanco Foodbank

A table is at the front of the church for the below Easter food collection. Of course, folks may continue to bring in what's usually listed in the bulletin.
